DASHES HERE AND THERE.

The sun sets to-night at 4:33: rises tomorrow morning at 6:59.

Gardeners who did not get their grape vines covered before the ground froze, are all of opinion that we shall have some soft weather before the final freeze up.

The shipment of butter from St. Albans on Tuesday was 298 lbs.

There are indications of a genuine revival of temperance in Vergennes.

The St. Albans Messenger says: A dull respondent notes the fact that in a dull time like the present, the people are more careful in trading, and look to those who offer the best inducements. The plain inference is that business men should advertise.

The old hunters and "men of the bolder" say the winter has not set in, in the present cold snap, being only the precursor of Indian summer.

Vermont sent more cattle to the Boston market the present week than all the other New England states together.

The funeral of James Merrill will be attended from the residence of his father-in-law, B. H. Browning, at Camden, N. J., on Saturday next.

Dancers are not so enthusiastic this winter as usual, at least all the balls are said, thus far, to have been lightly attended.

Rev. H. M. Grout, formerly pastor of the Congregational church at West Rutland, officiated at a brilliant public wedding at the Park street church, West Springfield, on Wednesday evening, performing the marriage service about half Puritanic and half Episcopal.

The Troy Times denies the statement that trains are to commence running over the Troy and Boston railroads to Bennington. It says: No such arrangement has been effected or ever talked of, and no change will be made in the arrangement which has been in effect for several years past.

Mrs. E. M. Stanton, widow of the ex-Secretary of War, who spent the past summer at the Equinox House, Manchester, died on Tuesday at Chestnut Hill, near Philadelphia.

Ex-Gov. J. Gregory Smith is again at the Windsor Hotel, New York.

A large edition of THE GLOBE is issued this morning, which your advertisers will be pleased to know."

TRUSTED.—We understand that Mr. Denton Taft has trusted Mr. James R. Langston, of Montpelier, on his subscription of $10,000, recently decided binding by the court, for $2,000, as due him (Taft) for building bridges on the line of the Weller railroad.

ODD FELLOWS.—At the semi-annual session of the Grand Encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania, on Monday, grand representatives from the Grand Lodge of the United States presented a lengthy and interesting report of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge.

ODD OFF.—We learn that Lt.-Commander Charles E. Clark, of Montpelier, (of the United States Navy) has had his leave of absence revoked, and is ordered to Norfolk, Va., to assume the position of Executive Officer on board the United States monitor "Mahopac." His short leave of absence is undoubtedly due to the recent complications.

THRESHING MACHINE ACCIDENT.—A young man by the name of John Hayes, son of Wm. Hayes of Duxbury, who had been employed by Mr. James Tillotson of East Warren, during the summer, was very severely injured by getting his hand and wrist caught in the machine and inflicting them so severely as to necessitate amputation of the arm.

A TAIL FAMILY.—Samuel Metcalf came to Royalton in 1802, located on the farm now owned by his son, John H. Metcalf. He came from Lebanon, Conn.; died Feb. 22d, 1855, aged 93 years. He enlisted in the Revolutionary army at the age of sixteen years, and drew a pension in later years, married Jane Sterling of Queenstown (now Granville, Vt.); his height was six feet and ten inches; his wife six feet; his weight one hundred and forty pounds; his wife over three hundred. They raised thirty-five feet and three inches of sons and eleven feet and ten inches of daughters; six sons and two daughters; Sybil, six feet and one-fourth inch; Betsey, five feet and nine and three-fourths inches; John H., six feet and four inches; Dan L., six feet and nine inches; George E., six feet and six inches; David, six feet and seven inches; Moses, six feet and eight inches; Samuel, six feet and five inches; making in all sixty-three feet and eleven inches in a family of ten persons.

"Local sketches" on the first page.

THE GLOBE to-day goes before its large number of readers with full columns of interesting reading matter, containing the latest news by mail and telegraph, making the largest daily journal of passing events published in Vermont.

A full report of Rev. Mr. Mills' lecture on "European Scenes and Society" will be found on the fourth page.

THE WEEKLY GLOBE is issued this morning, containing the largest amount of reading matter of any paper in the state.

IN JUST 1.

We learn that Mr. Patch, the engineer of the gravel train which nearly came in collision with the New York train on Monday evening, has been suspended by the managers of the Central Vermont. Under the circumstances, it is questionable whether this act of suspension is quite just towards Mr. Patch. It would seem that on Mr. Patch's arrival at Pittsford, the operator handed him a dispatch, saying, "Sign this quickly, and be off." He signed it and took the copy which the operator gave him. The following is a copy of the dispatch:

VERMONT CENTRAL RAILROAD,
By Telegraph from St. Albans, Nov. 18, 1873.

To Conductor and Engineer of gravel train at Pittsford.—You will run "wild" to the following number of cars, and return to Rutland, 25. J. W. Hobart.

The figures 25 are interpreted, "How do you understand 1?"

Mr. Patch understood the dispatch to which he was addressed as "Return." And the dispatch which was given him certainly reads "Rutland." It seems to us that the Pittsford operator is the party to blame in this transaction, and that Mr. Patch obeyed the order given him, and that he is not the party to be so severely censured as to be suspended.

The Central Vermont managers owe it to themselves and Mr. Patch to investigate the matter. We have no doubt that the Spaniards are to blame, and the Spaniards are to blame in this transaction, and that Mr. Patch obeyed the order given him, and that he is not the party to be so severely censured as to be suspended.
